Dear Miss Wrausman:

Thank you very much for your letter of July 31st. Your remarks are so kind that they are really embarrassing. However, I should like very much to be present at the Spotlight Dinner on December 3rd, and, insofar as I can see now, there is nothing which will prevent me from attending.

It was very interesting to read your remarks about Helen Spuerling and Harrison School. Unfortunately, I have seen neither very frequently for some time, but it is always a pleasure to see the home folks.

With very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

Dear Admiral Hickson:

Here is the first of our publicity. Thought you might like to see it.

We are hoping for more next week and I am sure we will have it.

Sincerely,
